5. OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE

5.1 The Association Committee shall consist of a Chairman and at least six and not more than fourteen Members, all positions being Honorary, and they shall appoint from the Committee Members a Secretary, a Treasurer and other Officers of the Association as required..

5.2 The Chairman and Members of the Committee shall be elected for a term of two years after which they retire but are eligible for re-election.

5.3 A request for nominations for Chairman and other Committee members shall be despatched by the Secretary to Members not less than four weeks before the Annual General Meeting (AGM). For consideration such nominations must be received by the Secretary at least two weeks before the AGM. Nominees shall have proposers and seconders and shall have indicated their willingness to serve.

5.4 Committee Members whose terms have expired shall resign at the time of the Committee election at the AGM. If the Chairman is amongst these, the election of a new Chairman shall then be by voting counted at the AGM with a simple majority deciding. The new Chairman shall then take up his duties.

5.5 Election of the other Committee members shall be by voting counted at the AGM with a simple majority deciding, the Chairman having a casting vote.

5.6 The Committee may form Sub-Committees and co-opt Members as required to fill Committee vacancies or to carry out special duties or tasks.

5.7 The Committee shall be responsible to the Association for the management of its affairs within the Constitution.

5.8 The Association may have a President and Vice-Presidents who shall be appointed by a General Meeting of the Association on the recommendation of the Committee. The President's and Vice-Presidents' terms of office shall normally last five years.

6. MEETINGS

6.1 The Annual General Meeting shall be held in April. Formal minutes shall be taken and approved subsequently by the Members at the following AGM.

6.2 A General Meeting may be called at any time by the Committee or at the request, in writing, of a quorum of seventeen Members.

6.3 Notification of any General Meeting shall be given by the Secretary at least four weeks in advance.

6.4 The quorum for a General Meeting shall be at least seventeen Members or one third of the membership, whichever is the least.

6.5 Motions to be put at any General Meeting must be received in writing, together with the names of proposers and seconders, by the Secretary at least two weeks before the meeting.

6.6 Only Members, other than Associate Members, are permitted to vote at General Meetings.

6.7 Committee Meetings may be called by any committee member and a minimum of three Meetings shall be held each year. Formal minutes shall be taken and approved subsequently by the Committee.
